NARRATIVE

On November 3, 2016 I was dispatched to a crash that occurred on Mount Vernon Road at Moull Street. When I arrived I spoke to Raven Wilson the driver of the black Nissan and Leigh Maynard the driver of the beige Lexus. Both parties involved stated they were ok and didn't need medical attention.

Raven stated the Lexus in front of her was making a left hand turn onto Moull Street and then decided at the last minute to merge back onto Mount Vernon Road and struck her in the left front side of her vehicle.

Leigh stated she was swinging her vehicle wide to make a right hand turn into a friend's driveway at 442 Mount Vernon Road and was struck by a black Nissan in her front passengers' door.

Mrs. Wilson advised me she thought Mrs. Maynard was impaired and that I should check her out. I did noticed Mrs. Maynards eyes were a little red but she didn't seemed impaired to me, none the less I performed a standardized field sobriety test on her. After performing the test on Mrs. Maynard it was concluded Maynard was not impaired.

Both parties were dismissed from the scene after Wally's towing towed the black Nissan back to their lot. Mrs. Wilson was advised she was going to be at fault for the accident even though no citations were issued. I

Vehicles were moved to side of the roadway prior to my arrival.
